Man Accused of Killing Lawyer Receives a New Attorney

By Scott Saward
DCH Staff Writer

Charged in the murder of his former attorney, Miguel Trujillo has been appointed another attorney from the public defender's office.

Judy Reed, from the Public Defender's Department in Albuquerque, had no comment, saying that she had just been given the case with no time to review it.

Trujillo had recently rejected his previous court-appointed attorney of six months, Matt Rubin.

An attorney from out of station was hired because none of the attorneys working for the Public Defender's Department out of Santa Fe knew Carlos Vigil, the man Trujillo is accused of murdering in a drive-by shooting.

Vigil was murdered Aug. 13, 1991 a few blocks from his Santa Fe court office while walking to District Court for a hearing.

A three-prong, early model fuel pickup was spotted in the area killing Trujillo in the crime.

Assistant District Attorney Richard Schaefer said the court was waiting for an attorney to represent Trujillo to be found to schedule the next hearing.

All Five District Court judges were disqualified from the hearings, with Judge Stephen McElfer excused. The Supreme Court appointed Second District Court Judge Neil Castellana from Albuquerque to oversee the hearings.

Trujillo is accused of an open charge of murder, two counts of enticement of witness or witness, one charge of tampering with evidence, and one charge of being a felon in possession of a firearm.

Trujillo pleads not guilty. He faces up to 70 years in prison.

A NEW COMMANDMENT

John 13:31-38

the DEPARTURE of CHRIST

"How splendid the cross of Christ!
It brings life, not death; light, not darkness;
paradise, not is loss. It is the wood on which the Lord, like a great warrior, was wounded in hands and feet and side, but healed thereby our wounds.
A tree had destroyed us; a tree now brought us life."

THEODORE OF STUDIOS

"The cross of Jesus is the supreme evidence of the love of God."

"Jesus said, 'I am with you for only a short time, and then I am going to the one who sent me. You will look for me, but you will not find me; and where I am, you cannot come.' The Jews said to one another, 'Where does this man intend to go that we cannot find him? Will he go where our people live scattered among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? What did he mean when he said, 'You will look for me, but you will not find me,' and 'Where I am, you cannot come'?"

"Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity."

"They love one another. They never fail to help widows; they save orphans from those who would hurt them. If they have something, they give freely to the man who has nothing. If they see a stranger, they take him home, and are happy, as though he were a real brother. They don't consider themselves brothers in the usual sense, but brothers through the Spirit, in God."
