★CHURCHES TOUCHING LIVES FOR CHRIST...Many thanks to all of you who so generously gave to CTLC over the last few months. The last two times CTLC has been opened we have set records for the number served, and the Tuesday before Thanksgiving, three (and often many more) very full bags of groceries were given out to 151 families! As you can imagine, this has left our shelves very bare so we are still in great need of the basics: canned green beans and corn, dried beans and rice, cereal, and canned meats. Also with winter approaching, we always are asked for WARM COATS AND CLOTHING especially men's and children's. Your generosity is greatly appreciated, and it is how we are able to do what we do for those in need in Temple.

★DO YOU HAVE A HEART TO SERVE CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS? We need volunteers to provide childcare Tuesdays, 5:45-8:30pm in room 104. We also need volunteers to provide meals for the parents/caregivers attending small group and their children. If this interests you, please contact Susie Marek @ 254-947-0650.

CHRISTMAS 2008

MATTHEW #1

A ROYAL BABY*

MATTHEW 1-2

The chorus of one of my favorite Christmas carols, "What Child Is This?" supplies the answer to its own question... "this, this is Christ the King!" The wise men who came seeking Him asked, "Where is He who is born King of the Jews?" In writing his gospel, Matthew focuses upon the royal aspects of the birth of this ROYAL BABY.
