The Wind
John 16:7-15

Mark Driscoll states, "the Holy Spirit was the forgotten Person of the Trinity." For centuries, little emphasis was placed upon the work of the Spirit. However, in recent years the work and ministry of the Spirit has become an emphasis of the church. Lines have been drawn between the "wild-eyed charismatic" who is regularly visited with visions, dreams, words of knowledge and prophetic utterances and "fighting fundamentalists" who think someone who raises a hand in worship should have it cut off! What is the role of the Holy Spirit and what should our response be to His ministry?
