Koinonia: Authentic Christian Fellowship Philippians 1:3-8

The Greek word Koinonia, or fellowship, has a nuanced definition depending on its context. However, in the New Testament it is often used to point to a sharing/fellowship/partnership between people with a common interest and common cause. There was a rich and deep sense of koinonia between Paul and the Philippian Church. This morning we will look at what fellowship is not, what is fellowship's source, and what is fellowship's trajectory?

Where does fellowship come from?

-The _____ is our model. John 17:20-23

-We learn from Jesus' _____ and _____.

John 13:34-35

Why is unity so important?

-It will _____ us in the world as those who follow
Jesus.

Authentic Christian Fellowship happens:

When we surrender to _____.

When we live in authentic biblical _____.

When we live on _____ together.
