MOVING MEETING

How can a good God allow suffering?

How can we trust
the Bible is true?

How can Christianity have credibility in the age of science?

How can I discern
God's will for my life?

How do we share our faith in today's culture?

What does it mean to have faith? Isn't faith just a psychological crutch?

A close-up, high-contrast photograph of a vibrant red rose. The rose is the central focus, its petals rich and saturated in color. It is being splashed with water, which is captured in mid-air, creating a dynamic and energetic scene. Numerous water droplets are frozen in time around the rose, some appearing as bright, out-of-focus circles (bokeh) against the dark background. The background is predominantly black, which makes the red of the rose and the white of the water droplets stand out. The overall mood is romantic and passionate, fitting the theme of the text.

“And now, here’s what I’m going to do:
I’m going to start all over again.
I’m taking her back out into the wilderness where we had our first date, and I’ll court her.
I’ll give her bouquets of roses.
I’ll turn Heartbreak Valley into Acres of Hope.
She’ll respond like she did as a young girl,
those days when she was fresh out of Egypt.”

HOSEA 2:14-15

"So Jesus said to them again, 'Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. ... I am the door; if anyone enters through Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture.'"

HOME

"Our God is a God who not merely restores, but takes up our mistakes and follies into His plan for us and brings good out of them. This is part of the wonder of His gracious sovereignty. 'I will restore to you the years that the locust has eaten...'"
