John 19:25-27

Due to unfortunate oppression and subjugation of women over the years, some people who claim to know Jesus and are leaders in the church have given Christianity a bad name. However, throughout Scripture, we can find the inclusion, the crucial roles and the impact of women in the spread of the Gospel and foundation of the church.

“But love never looked like this. Pools of blood beading the dirt beneath the cross. A heavy spike through the feet. Ribs protruding against the skin. Open wounds bothered by flies. Eyes swollen with fever. Hair matted from this morning’s thorns. Hands raised to God on splintered wood. A slumped torso, dangling from impaled wrists like some grotesque pendant. It is more than a mother can bear. But somehow she does. Largely because of the man standing beside her, steadying her – John, the disciple Jesus loves.” Ken Gire

The Final Moments

John 19:31-37

“The water that flowed from our Savior’s side was a sign of the eternal quenching of our spiritual thirst. Instead of Moses’ rod (a symbol of judgment and authority) striking the Israelites for their disobedience, it came down on the rock, which thus produced the water the people needed. In the same way, God’s judgment against sin struck Jesus rather than us.”

Tim Keller

“Stand at the foot of the cross, and count the purple drops by which you have been cleansed; see the thorn-crown; mark His scourged shoulders, still gushing with encrimsoned rills; see hands and feet given up to the rough iron, and His whole self to mockery and scorn; see the bitterness, and the pangs, and the throes of inward grief, showing themselves in His outward frame; hear the thrilling shriek, "My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?" And if you do not lie prostrate on the ground before that cross, you have never seen it: if you are not humbled in the presence of Jesus, you do not know Him.”

Spurgeon
