

ABRAHAM

father of the faithful

WILL GOD DO WHAT IS RIGHT?

GENESIS 18:16-33

"Far be it from you to do such a thing, to put the righteous to death with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just?"

GENESIS 18:25

"Far be it from you to do such a thing, to put the righteous to death with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from you!..."

GENESIS 18:25

"Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just?"

GENESIS 18:25

The background of the image is a gradient of colors from a sunset or sunrise. The top half is a dark, deep blue or teal, speckled with small white dots representing stars. The bottom half transitions into a warm, orange and yellow glow. Silhouetted against this glow are the dark, jagged outlines of mountains or hills. The text is centered in the middle of the image, in a white, sans-serif font.

Abraham's prayer is bold.

"Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need."

HEBREWS 4:16

Abraham's prayer is persistent.

“Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.”

MATTHEW 7:7-8

"And the Lord said, 'Hear what the unrighteous judge says. And will not God give justice to his elect, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long over them? I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily...'"

LUKE 18:6-8

The lower portion of the image shows the dark, silhouetted outlines of rugged mountains and hills against the glowing horizon.

Abraham's prayer is humble.

"For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit..."

1 PETER 3:18

we are a people of prayer.
