

“Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity...”

“Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts. And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.”

Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: 'Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?' Jesus replied: 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.'"

LOVE & Love
God & OTHERS

“The Shemah”

“Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts.”

DEUTERONOMY 6:4-6

1 John 4:18

Dear friends,
let us love one another,
for love comes from God.
Everyone who loves has been born of God
and knows God.

1 John 4:7

A photograph of Fred Rogers, a middle-aged man with grey hair, smiling warmly. He is wearing a light blue collared shirt, a dark tie with a small pattern, and a mustard-colored cable-knit zip-up sweater. He is sitting and holding a small white object in his hands. The background is slightly blurred, showing what appears to be a window with some plants.

When I was a boy
and I would see scary things in the news, my mother
would say to me,
'Look for the helpers. You will always find
people who are helping.'
