EVALUATION

1 CORINTHIANS 4:1-13

"This is how one should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself. For I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me."

"Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God. I have applied all these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brothers, that you may learn by us not to go beyond what is written, that none of you may be puffed up in favor of one against another."

A yellow pencil is positioned in the top right corner, and a blue pen is in the bottom right corner, both resting on a black background. The text is centered in the middle of the frame.

"For who sees anything different in you? What do you have that you did not receive? If then you received it, why do you boast as if you did not receive it?"

A godly outlook on evaluation shows self-giving service instead of self-appointed authority.

"This is how one should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found faithful."

1 CORINTHIANS 4:1,2

"Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross."

1 CORINTHIANS 4:3

A godly outlook on evaluation brings a new kind of self-evaluation.

"For I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me."

1 CORINTHIANS 4:4

A godly outlook on evaluation opens our eyes to see things how they really are.

"Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God."

1 CORINTHIANS 4:5

"For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places."

EPHESIANS 6:12

A godly outlook on evaluation shows us that any authority is a gift from God.

"I have applied all these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brothers, that you may learn by us not to go beyond what is written, that none of you may be puffed up in favor of one against another."

1 CORINTHIANS 4:6,7

"This is the one to whom I will look: he who is humble and contrite in spirit and trembles at My word."

ISAIAH 66:2

"Humility draws the gaze of our sovereign God."

"We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we in disrepute."

1 CORINTHIANS 4:10

When hated, they bless.

When persecuted, they endure.

When slandered, they encourage.

“To the present hour we hunger and thirst, we are poorly dressed and buffeted and homeless, and we labor, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure; when slandered, we entreat.”

1 CORINTHIANS 4:11-13A

"We have become, and are still, like the scum of the world, the refuse of all things."
